So crazy busy this week, sorry I've neglected PhillyChitChat. I am populating my media outlets a lot this week, but I promise to be good to you next week PCC. Here are the links to Philly Dot Com and Philly Mag regarding the Bank and Bourbon VIP Opening night party.

Thanks so much for your patience as I try and find a balance in my life and post more on PCC, but I do tweet a lot through out the day, do you follow me @IPhillyChitChat .

Bank and Bourbon, I've eaten there twice and I really enjoy it.

This is the new LOEWS Lobby, I love it. You can order a lite snack or drink here. They have WiFi. I think this will be my new "work office" when I'm in town and need to kill an hour or two. Don't tell anyone.

The best dessert in the City right now. The Butterscotch, and vanilla ice cream sundae, with chocolate covered popcorn. Tell them I sent you.
